SHIPLEY ARTS FESTIVAL HONG KONG CHAPTER

Bernardi Music Group

Music to inspire and connect

Shipley Arts Festival Hong Kong Chapter

"One of the UK's most highly respected Classical Music Festivals"
West Sussex County Times

Patrons: Gavin Henderson CBE, The Rt Hon Lord Maude, The Earl and Countess of Lytton, Sir Charles and Lady Burrell, Mrs Clare Davison, Jonathan and Caroline Lucas.

It is a great privilege to welcome you in our tenth year of our Shipley Arts Festival China Hong Kong and Macau Chapter. We are delighted to follow the great example set by George Frederick Handel and J.S.Bach in performing the finest music in order to bring together our communities.

The Shipley Arts Festival has become 'one of the most highly respected classical music festivals in the UK' hosting thirty international level concerts annually. We have expanded opportunities for Sussex and London audiences with a very committed team of distinguished musicians in Bernardi Music Group from where our Stradivarius Piano Trio and BMG Stradophonics emanates. We are delighted to support young musicians from all backgrounds by creating pathways to music and the professions through our String Academy Programme and Trinity Sannyi Exchange Summer School which we held for the first time in Hong Kong this summer.

Shipley Arts Festival has commissioned over forty new works which have been premiered by Bernardi Music Group including the late Jon Lord's (formerly of Deep Purple) 'To Notice Such Things' which reached number four in the Classic FM charts. Other notable commissions include 'Ada' by James Whitbourn premiered at the Balliol College Oxford University dinner to celebrate the 200th birthday of Ada Lovelace, 'Great Hills' by Cecilia McDowall, 'Knepp Piano Trio' by Roderick Williams OBE, and our Festival has successfully collaborated with John Rutter CBE, Nigel Kennedy, Gordon Giltrap, Mary and Sophie Bevan.

We successfully led the acquisition of our 1696 Amici Bernardi Stradivarius violin and to then form Stradivarius Piano Trio in 2014. We have been awarded Arts Council England support to record several of our acclaimed world premiere commissions. We have subsequently this year recorded Paul Lewis' Shipley violin concerto and Malcolm Singer's 'Eli Eli Fantasy' with musicians from the Czech Philharmonic and for release in 2027.

We welcome you and your friends on an inspiring musical journey across Hong Kong, Southern China and Macau this week, and look forward to developing and deepening our toots in the China Great Bay region with this Trinity Sannyi Music Academy exchange programme. We will continue to grow trade, artistic endeavour, and good relations between the UK and China Hong Kong Macau and Shenzhen.

I am particularly grateful to our partner Nicholin Choi for working so generously and tirelessly to make this exchange programme reality. Our Festival sponsors are all number one for their sectors, and it is a great pleasure to bring leading British brands Toovey's, Nyetimber, NFU Mutual Horsham Chichester and Pulborough, Toovey's, and Kreston Reeves (part of AAB Group) to Hong Kong.

We are grateful to all our sponsors, Festival Friends, and the great support of The British Council.
We are greatly looking forward to sharing music with you!

Warmest Festival wishes,
Andrew Bernardi, Artistic Director

MENUHIN SPIRIT AT CONFUCIAN'S TOUCH
古樂交流越文化 薪火相傳立德韻

Dear friends and distinguished guests,

It is a great pleasure to welcome you to the 2026 Shipley Arts Festival Hong Kong Chapter Concert hosted and presented by Trinity Sannyi Music Academy.

2026 has been a remarkable year and we have reached more milestones than we have ever expected. We were delighted to give masterclasses at two local schools in Hong Kong and continued our valued collaboration with the University of Macau. This summer, we also held our first Trinity Sannyi Exchange Summer School in Hong Kong. It brought together young string players and pianists from Hong Kong, Macau, Beijing, Shanghai, Hainan, Wuhan and the United Kingdom. The week ended with a graduation concert alongside students of the Heep Woh College, a true meeting of East and West. Some students said, "It was the best week of our lives." and they treasure the friendships, the music and the joy they shared.

Our theme, "East Meets West", echoes "the MENUHIN SPIRIT AT CONFUCIAN'S TOUCH". It reflects our commitment to bringing the values of Yehudi Menuhin and Confucian into our cultural exchange programme. We will continue to build a joyful and lasting platform for young musicians from the Greater Bay Area, Mainland China and Asia's conservatoires where they can learn, grow and perform alongside professional musicians from the Greater Bay Area, Mainland China and the United Kingdom.

This afternoon's programme reflects that same spirit, bringing together a Summer School pianist, Heep Woh College's Chinese orchestra, our Western string players and our Junior and Senior Choirs. We are also delighted to welcome, for the first time, musicians from Mainland China who will play the erhu and sing 'Memory' from the musical 'Cats'. Our Opus II Strings will then perform Mendelssohn's brilliant Octet, joined by our pianist—this time on the cello—our emerging double bass player and the students of the University of Macau. Together, they will make this a memorable autumn afternoon in the Year of the Horse.

We would like to thank all our friends, clients and partners in Hong Kong and overseas for their generous support of Trinity Sannyi Music Academy and the Shipley Arts Festival Hong Kong Chapter. We are especially grateful to C.C.C. Heep Woh College, International Christian Quality Music Primary and Secondary School, S. K. H. Fung Kei Millennium Primary School and the University of Macau for their participation and dedicated support.

Please join me in giving a warm round of applause to our musicians, our team, the participating schools and our special guests. I hope you enjoy this inspiring afternoon of music together.

We Believe Music Is Universal

Music is an essential part of life, with a profound positive influence on people everywhere.

Many young musicians from Chinese and Asian conservatories train diligently for years, we wish to create a platform for them to perform and showcase their talents on international stages.

Our mission is to create a cultural exchange platform for these young classical musicians, enabling them to learn, collaborate, and perform alongside UK musicians.

Trinity Sannyi Music Academy, the cultural exchange arm of the Shipley Arts Festival, organizes annual Summer Camps, Masterclasses, and Concerts in the UK, Mainland China, HKSAR and Macau. We also deliver Masterclasses to schools, academies, and universities, while inviting students and musician teachers to join our Summer Camps, Masterclasses, and Concerts.

Quotes from a few students
“We did, see and experience so much in the Summer School”

Austin said “Performing in graduation concert of the summer school, I overcame pre-performance nerves and became fully immersed in the music, earning enthusiastic applause from the audience. Beyond improving musical skills, the summer camp fostered friendships across national boundaries and a heartfelt realization - music can connect people even when they do not share a language”

Will said “beautiful music, beautiful camp site and beautiful friendship”

Jacob said “it’s the best week of my life”
